

HARVEST PARTY

sowing generosity, reaping transformation

Sunday, October 19th
5:00-8:00pm

Will you be my guest?

Please join me for a festive evening of happy hour with fall games, dinner, inspiring stories of transformation, and lively line dancing. It's the perfect way to celebrate all that's been sown—and the good that's growing—together.

The event is hosted by Hope for San Diego, an organization I support that mobilizes Christians across the city to bring hope to the poor and marginalized through acts of love and service.
